

A Heritage of Insurance

Mid-Valley Insurance was founded in 1931 and after three generations, continues to be a family held business

As an Independent Insurance Agency, Mid-Valley represents a host of companies which specialize in various lines of coverage. This allows the Mid-Valley Agent to find the right company for the right exposure, providing you with the right coverage at the right price.

Doing it the Mid-Valley way

Harley Davidson Dealers throughout the country have developed a level of trust and confidence that has been recognized by the Auto-Owners Insurance Company. As a result, they have partnered with the Mid-Valley Insurance Agency in providing a flexible contract to include the operations of Sales, service and all the exposures that have gone along with those. These include:

- Property
- Liability
- Dealer Blanket
- Fleet
- Equipment
- Workers Compensation
- Umbrella Liability
- Bond
- Customers Property
- Employee Benefits
- Financial Planning

Other Operations

Improving your bottom line is a matter of survival in today's difficult business climate so it's not unusual to have a Harley Davidson Dealer operation that has taken on new methods of customer care. Whether it's broadening your line of retail sales or taking on additional manufacturers, our policy can easily extend the proper protections to cover your business. This is where the Insurance Consultants at Mid-Valley Insurance provide you the best service available. We can help identify the types of exposures you may have and issue policies that fill the gaps created by these operations.

Our Competitive Edge

The most important factor today in providing protection for Harley Davidson Dealers is that we are able to do so at a cost savings for you. We owe it to you to obtain the most cost effective insurance program available.

To this end we remain dedicated.

Using Premium Control Strategies

To Achieve "Best of Class"

Our Premium Control Strategies are designed to have our insured's regarded by the insurance industry as "Best in Class" - staying ahead of the cycle and affording you a stable and competitive market regardless of the peaks and valleys of the industry.
